

Endeavor Monthly

FEBRUARY 2022

BY KEITH HAAG

Sperle Starts Off 2022 with a Big Win

CJ Thoroughbreds' homebred Sperle brought in the New Year with style, winning a maiden special weight race at Sam Houston on January 15th. Making his third career start, the bay gelding by Speightster rallied hard in the stretch to get up for a half-length score. Sperle (a.k.a. "The Champion") was foaled and raised at Endeavor Farm. He is out of the multiple stakes winning mare Go Go Lolo (by Awesome Again). Congratulations to CJ Thoroughbreds on the win, and a great job by trainer Lee Rossi and jockey Richard Eramia.

Man in the Can Back in Winner's Circle at Oaklawn

Multiple stakes winner and 2020 Bluegrass Stakes participant Man in the Can (Can the Man – Smeauxkininthelane, by Smoke Glacken) started off his five-year-old campaign in victorious fashion. The Arkansas-bred won in allowance company at Oaklawn Park on January 16th. He led gate-to-wire, finishing with a 7 ½ length dominating score under a hand ride with Joel Rosario up. Man in the Can now has five wins from 15 career starts, with earnings over $350,000. What a fun win for J.R. & Rita Young with this talented homebred! Cheers to the victors. Let's hope he continues his winning ways into the New Year.

Bout Time Takes Her Time but Delivers

Just turned four-year-old Bout Time (Not This Time – Chilling Effect, by Gold Fever) may be a late bloomer, but that didn't stop her from putting forth a stellar effort to win a maiden special weight race at Fair Grounds on January 28th. Making only her second career start, Bout Time looked the part as she blew past her rivals to cruise home to an easy 5 ½ length victory. She was foaled at Endeavor Farm for Dr. Bart Barber's Wolverton Mountain Farm. Well done on a great display of patience by trainer Cherie DeVaux, and a masterful ride by veteran jockey Brian Hernandez.

Fasig-Tipton February Sale Horses

Hip #45

Stand Back (by Giant's Causeway)
In foal to Maclean's Music
Last Breeding Date: 4/5/21

Hip #213

Good Magic – Clara Barton
Bay filly; Foaled: 2/29/20
Breeder: Endeavor Farm

Hip #441

Please Remember Me
Bullet Train – One for You
Not pregnant

Hip #442

Coal Front – Please Remember Me
Dk. bay/brown filly; Foaled: 4/8/21
Breeder: Coal Creek Farm

I'm Leaving You Wins Again

So far, 2022 has been a great year for racehorses that were foaled and raised at Endeavor Farm! I'm Leaving You (Broken Vow – One for You, by Dayjur) is yet another winner for the home team, coming away with an allowance victory as the heavy favorite at Turf Paradise on January 19th. This marks his third career win as a homebred for Barbara Ratcliff's Coal Creek Farm. Nice work by trainer Vann Belvoir and jockey Lindey Wade.

A Word from Terry

The old saying is a watched pot never boils. I guess that holds true for foaling mares as well. The foaling crew is still awaiting the year's first arrival. Currently, there are three mares past due and several more due in a few days. There will be a foaling party soon enough, but the anticipation is exciting as we await the upcoming foal crop.

As February begins, the Endeavor Sales team will be at Fasig-Tipton's Winter Mixed Sale with a consignment of four. Hip 45 is a young Giant's Causeway mare in foal to Maclean's Music. Hip 213 is a 2-year-old racing prospect by Good Magic. Hip 441 is a young, open mare by Bullet Train, and hip 442 is her yearling filly by Coal Front. We are stabled in Barn 5, so if you are around, please stop by and inspect this group and say hello.

On the racing front, there have been many recent winners. Our good friends and clients Slugo Racing and Paymaster Racing have been on a hot streak with 3 recent winners. Meanwhile, JRita Young Thoroughbreds have been in the winner's circle at Oaklawn with multiple horses. Endeavor Farm has bred two recent winners out of Poppy's Baby Girl and Barnett Eques won with a first time starter raised at Endeavor Farm. I would say this is a great way to start 2022 and let's keep it going.

-T