Uptown Guy Breaks Maiden at Turfway

Congratulations to the connections of Uptown Guy, who won for fun in a maiden breaking effort at Turfway Park on February 12th. The three-year-old gelding by Temple City really found his stride in this race, breaking cleanly and getting out to an early lead in the field of nine. He continued to draw away from the field as they made their way down the backstretch, attaining a lead that was too much for his foes to make a run at. Uptown Guy cruised down the stretch for an effortless 3 ¼ length margin of victory in his fourth career start. The future is bright for this young guy who was foaled and raised at Endeavor Farm! Uptown Guy was bred by Endeavor Farm & Lenny Kohn and is out of the Raven’s Pass mare Cozy Up. A job well done by trainer James Chapman and jockey Alex Achard. Way to go on the first of hopefully many trips to the winner’s circle! We anxiously await his next time out.

Blarney Girl Wins Again

Another start, another win! The taste of victory was so sweet for Blarney Girl (Exaggerator – Irish Pleasure, by Awesome Again) after breaking her maiden in December that she decided to make a habit out of it. The chestnut filly added another win to her resume with a decisive front-running score at Turfway Park on February 24th. She earned an impressive Equibase Speed Figure of 85 for the 2 ¼ length win. Blarney Girl, who was foaled and raised at Endeavor Farm, is in great form and we hope she keeps it up! Great work by trainer Larry Smith and jockey Guillermo Rodriguez. Best of luck to everyone.

A Word from Terry

The watched pot finally boiled. The foaling barn had several busy nights with the arrival of 6 new foals. There were colts by Practical Joke and Higher Power as well as fillies by Malibu Moon, Connect, McKinzie, and Spun to Run. We are glad to report both mares and foals are happy and healthy.

The vans were rolling to an early start in the breeding season. We are pleased to report that the first two pregnancies have been confirmed. The first mares are pregnant to Accelerate and Cairo Prince. Hail Caesar the Teaser for getting us off to a great start! It was really nice to see the first mare confirmed pregnant belongs to none other than our own Keith and Laura Haag with their partners, Connor and Paul Devine. Congrats on your first upcoming foal.

We can also report that the sale in February was a great success. All four horses in the consignment found new homes. The sales results were very strong and the market for good horses certainly remains solid. Let’s hope this market continues into the future.

On a final note, Caroline and I are happy and blessed to announce the engagement of our daughter Claire to Hagan Wells. We are very pleased for them and also anxious to learn of future plans they will be making. What a great way to wrap up February.
